

Black Cat Biscuit, no well-trodden paths or worn-out covers, but a surprisingly foxy cocktail of fresh songs, marinated in a special gumbo hot sauce. Five driven musicians, who earned their stripes by playing in different bands over the years, decided to get together in 2015.

The band was selected for the finals of the Belgian Blues Challenge in 2017 and won the Belgian Blues Challenge in 2018. They will represent Belgium on the European Blues Challenge in 2019.

their first full album 'That's how the cookie crumbles', was released on 22 February 2019.

And already it's 6th place of UK Blues Charts top 40

Their single Parrot woman was also in the charts in USA on Roots Music Report blues charts.

Nr.3 on Roots music Report Blues/Rock charts Top 50

Nr.12 on Roots music Report Overall Blues Charts Top 50

Influences of West Coast Swing, Shuffle, Jazz, Boogie, raw Slide and Texas Blues to name a few, are definitely present in their music. On top of that, writing and playing honest songs, coming straight from the heart, is the main red thread within Black Cat Biscuit. So strong the audience experiences these energetic vibes. Even if blues ain't your cup of tea, you will be moved for sure!

Now sit tight, hold on to your socks and enjoy!
